Dear Else Martin,

Words cannot express the kind thanks to the help you extended to my uncle George Warren Culpepper and I during our recent visits to your library. With the help of you and your staff we were able to complete a lifelong dream of my uncle's to discover more about his dad, Ralph Harold Culpepper (son of Warren Ebeneezer Culpepper) and family.

We had no idea when we were traveling that Uncle Warren had only days left in his life. Although we were aware that time was perhaps short due to heart problems, who could know that he would be gone only 4 days after we returned home.

Your genealogical section of your library is staffed by one of the most helpful that I have found in all my searchings. Without your help, my uncle would not have seen his dream fulfilled! We would never have know where to begin to look, and only had a very short time to spend on it.

Please accept this heartfelt thankyou for all your help. Those that are not family historians have no idea the importance of the records kept by libraries such as yours. At times such as Warren's it enables a closure to lifelong questions. And now I am able to pass this information on to my dad and Aunt too!

Should you find more information on Warren Ebeneezer Culpepper June 24,1859 Ga to May13,1907 Tx, wife Eula Frances Shelfer Nov 1, 1865 Florida - Oct 12, 1904 Tx and family, I would be most appreciative to receive it. Records found in your library indicate that they were there at least June 1899 to Jan 1903. Any cost incurred, I will gladly reimburse!

Again, thank you to your and your staff for your assistance and kindness shown to us.

Pat, I can add a little on the Culpeppers. The elder John in the 1820 Hancock Co, MS census, was likely the son of John Culpepper and wife Agnes, of Washington Co, GA, died in 1808 leaving a will in a deed in Jones Co. GA. mentioning son John. etc. The John in Hancock was probably the one who received a passport from the Governor of GA to travel across Indian lands to MS. He had sons Sampson (no further info) and John William. John William, the younger John in 1820 Hancock County, married Keziah Taylor, died 18 Feb 1860 in Lawrence Co, MS. The couple had at least two sons, John Abb Culpepper (circa 1824-12 April 1863) who married Dorcas Ann Hood in Lawrence Co, MS in 1842, and William, who married Nancy. William was in 1850 Washington Parish, LA, 1860 Angelina Co, TX, 1870 DeWitt Co, TX, and 1880 Bosque Co, TX. The early John with wife Agnes, in GA, was the son of Joseph Culpepper and wife Martha, Joseph died 1745 in Edgecombe Co, NC. Joseph was the son of Robert Culpepper. who died 1743 in Norfolk Co. VA. Robert was the son of Henry Culpepper, the immigrant, and wife Elizabeth. Henry came to VA in 1653 and died in Norfolk Co in the mid-1670's. Will look forward to hearing from anyone who knows more about this line in MS or TX.

ed De Wet again. The Convened with success in C. Miles on the bench.

The following grand jury was empanelled and sworn: Kila Platt, foreman; George Matthews, J. D. Dale, W. K. Mead, J. W. King, J. F. Bennett, W. E. Alford, A. A. Vaughan, W. S. Brakefield, D. L. McLaurin, T. T. Garner E. A. J. Comb. Martin Casey, C. A. Young, John Fletcher, P. A. McAlister, J. D. Clark, James Riley, W. Howell and James W. Bethea.

Judgé Niles made a magnificent address to the grand jury. Compliments on every side were heard, and it was put down as a very able effort. He reminded the jurors that they had a sacred duty to perform; they should not indict a man simply because he was an objectionable neighbor: they were to listen to the evidence and rely upon that: they were there to inquire into the actions of counterfeiters, to learn who has been selling whiskey without a license, tordiscover who has been pillering the mails, to ferret out the depredations on public lands-in short to indict all violators of the United States laws It was not fair for one man to have his license for seiling whiskey conspicuously displayed and another within a stone's throw running a blind tiger under an organized system of perjury. The law reads that the license must be in a conspicuous place and the court was being governed by the law. The moral tone of the community is lowered if the blind tiger is unmolested. The man who goes through the country shooting windows out of churches and schoolhouses, with a bottle of cheap poison in either pocket is usually the product of unlicensed whiskey shops. It was the duty of the jury to find out

IT MAKES SOME DRY COUNTIES

Jackson, Miss. Feb. 15 .- The Dunn bill providing for the restriction of the liquor traffic in towns of less than 500 population without day and night police protection has been approved by Governor Longino.

The passage of this measure is largely due to the efforts of Rev. B. Q. Trigg, of Tunica county, a member. of the North Mississippi Conference of the Methodist church, who has heen in the city since the opening of the legislative session working in the interest of the bill. He framed the original draft, which was introduced in the senate by Mr. C. C. Dunn, by request. In discussing the effects of this new law, Mr. Trigg said:

"The effect of the bill will be to completely abolish saloons in Quitman. Issaquena and Sharkey counties. which are now in the 'wet' column, It will also leave only two saloons in Tunica county, both being in the town of Tunica, which contains over 500 population. It will also close 18 saloons in Washington county, and to a great extent effect the saloan business in all the 'wet' counties by closing up, the liquor shops in the small towns. It is a long step toward State prohibition, and one of the best pieces of legislation accomplished during the present session,"

With last week's issue the Pasca-GOULA DEMOCRAT-STAR closes its fifty-sevently volume. Having the highest admiration and esteem for the editor of the "Old Reliable" we could think of nothing but the hest wishes for its success; and trust that Bro. "P.
